

CHRIS SIMMS

LOCAL AUTHOR TALK //

Along with several nominations for the Crime Writers' Association Daggers (for his novels and short stories) and the Theakston's Crime Novel of the Year award, Chris was selected by Waterstone's as one of their '25 Authors For The Future'. He continues to scribble away from a small hut in his garden, a scruffy little lurcher lying at his feet.

Join him for a talk about his life as a novel writer, and what sparked the idea for his latest title, 'Midnight Rambler'. Signed copies of Simms' books will also be available.
