

Carers for Adults with a Learning Disability

■ WHAT IS THIS GROUP

We are a group of parents, siblings, relatives and carers for adults, over the age of 18, with a learning disability. We provide an opportunity to have a coffee and a chat, exchange information and listen to relevant guest speakers.

■ AIMS

To provide information for carers for adults with a learning disability. Not just parents but also siblings, relatives and friends.
To help improve the quality of life for adults with a learning disability and their carers living in Stockport.
To pass on any relevant information about organisations and events which may be of interest.
