

LOCAL AUTHOR TALK

WORLD WAR TWO- HOW IT CHANGED WOMEN'S LIVES FOREVER

SHIRLEY MANN

Local author, Shirley Mann, will be talking about her books involving women in WW2, inspired by real people's stories. Using interviews with former servicewomen, she will talk about the pilots in the Air Transport Auxiliary; how WAAFs were the only contact with Lancaster bombers as they flew into Europe; how Land Army girls had to dig up frozen sprouts and much more!

You will be guaranteed facts about the minutiae of every day life that aren't in the history books and will hear the amazing details of the unsung stories of our grandmothers and how they paved the way for all of us.
